Administrator Named President of Statewide City Association

Last week, the Wisconsin City/County Management Association (WCMA) held its Annual Business Meeting in Eau Claire, and unanimously approved the Association's slate of officers for the 2024-25 year. Accordingly, Mequon City Administrator Will Jones, who currently serves as President-Elect, will become WCMA's new President starting July 1. He will succeed current WCMA President and Rib Mountain Village Administrator Gaylene Rhoden, who will assume the role of Past-President. Also joining Administrator Jones on WCMA's 2024-25 Executive Committee will be President-Elect Steve Volkert, who presently serves as Hartford's City Administrator, and Brown Deer Village Administrator Tyler Burkhardt, who will operate as Secretary/Treasurer through the coming year.

Comprised of more than 400 individual members across the State of Wisconsin, WCMA exists to promote professional and ethical government management by providing an inclusive, collegial environment for its' members pursuit of public service excellence.

Permission Needed for Removal of Specimen Trees

Because old growth trees provide benefits to all citizens, the City has a Tree Preservation Ordinance. The benefits of old growth trees include reducing storm water runoff, preservation of wildlife habitat, enhancement of air quality, and improved aesthetics, among others. Therefore, citizens are prohibited from destruction of specimen trees without permission from the Planning Commission. A list of specimen trees can be found here. For further information, contact City Forester Mike Gies at (262) 512-1297 or mgies@ci.mequon.wi.us.
